

(Contd.)

4. Also food tickets as they were under the protection of the Germans. RICOI found in MILAN the brother of CARLO RICOI, namely CARLO RICOI, Jean (arrested by U.S.C. 92nd Div.) who lived at the Hotel CONFIDENTIAL room 309 MILAN. Subject and RICOI became of previous friendship with CARLO RICOI's brother for the first few weeks were kept by CARLO RICOI. In April 1945 subject met a certain AUDIERE when he had known in NEUSTADT whilst in hospital. The friendship was renewed and AUDIERE promised to obtain work for subject. A few days later, subject was presented to KELL who proposed the following work to subject. To obtain information on- confidential running between Italy and Switzerland or else on Partisan organizations. Subject agreed to the work and was paid 3,000 lire and told to return a few days later which he did. A second mission was given to subject namely to obtain information concerning Communist activities. Subject gave a further 10,000 lire. KELL also gave subject documents for him to carry a revolver and be out after curfew. Whilst working for KELL he met through AUDIERE a certain woman by the name of SARA D'ESTERRE, born alias FRANCESCA who asked subject if he would like to go to France. Subject agreed to this proposition and a few days later went and saw MARTINI of P.D., 150 in Piazza GRANTY KELLY. MARTINI wanted to send subject to CORSICA and obtained for him another set of documents; subject received 10,000 lire and told to return later. MARTINI did not give details on the mission that subject had to accomplish and when a few days later subject returned he was told that the mission was off and that subject would be sent to a school where part of the subjects taught were on identification of Allied equipment subject received 10,000 lire and was also told to try and find a man who would be willing to learn W/A and go to CORSICA with a team of six men. For this kind of work subject gave the name of SABBANI Xavier, he was later presented to MARTINI. Subject ignores whether SABBANI Xavier ever left for CORSICA as the meeting between MARTINI and SABBANI took place towards the end of April 1945 just before the Partisan rising in MILAN. Subject was never sent on any mission although had the time permitted he would have gone to FRANCE.

5. On the day of the Partisan rising in MILAN MARTINI with part of his organization left in civilian cars with a German military convoy. Major